TROUBLESHOOTING

USB DEVICE NOT FUNCTIONAL

Solution 1: Disconnect and re-connect the USB device again to ensure the PC or Laptop register the peripheral connected.

Solution 2: Ensure the driver of the USB device connected is installed correctly. (For more information regarding driver installation, refer to the instruction manual of the USB device or contact the manufacturer for further information.)

Solution 3: For a high power device such as USB powered portable hard drive, "Y" type USB cable may be required to connect 2 USB ports. (Refer to the instruction manual of the USB device or contact the manufacturer for further information)

Solution 4: Check the length of USB cable connected. The performance of the USB device connected may be affected with over 5M cable in length. Use a shorter USB cable to connect the USB device if required.
